1. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

1.1.1 The aim of the stakeholder consultation is to engage affected stakeholders and to discuss potential environmental, social and economic impacts (both positive contributions and potential risks) that projects may have during design, planning and implementation and to establishing an ongoing feedback-mechanism for feedback.

1.1.2 All Gold Standard projects shall "take gender issues into account". This requires that local stakeholder consultation processes to reach a wide range of community representatives in ways that ensure equal and effective participation of both women and men in consultation, and that gender issues are fully factored into comprehensive social and environmental impact assessments."¹ Project Developers are referred to the Gold Standard Gender Equality Requirements & Guidelines and ~~Gold Standard Gender Policy~~ Gender Policy.
